WEDNESDAY, MAY 9

11 am • Peregrine's Mystery Book Club • Welcome all lovers of mysteries, suspense, thrillers, noir, and whodunnits. The book we'll discuss on 5/9 is Out by Natsuo Kirino.

THURSDAY, MAY 10

5:30 pm • Death Cafe • Hosted by Dani LaVoire.

SATURDAY, MAY 12

11 am • Children's Story Time • See 5/5.

2 pm • Shirley Willis: Naked Teaching • Reading, Q&A, Booksigning • Naked Teaching: A Love Story shows you, like no other book, what happens to hopes and dreams when school budgets are stripped of the doorframe, hormones rage, friendships avalanche and beliefs are assaulted. Naked Teaching is set in the fictional Wild West town of Coyote Crossing, AZ and is a cautionary tale about the current anti-public school climate.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 16

6 pm • Location: Highlands Center • Chautauqua Series: John Muir Performance • Join us for a special performance by Doug Hulmes as John Muir to learn more about the life and work of one of the early pioneers of American environmentalism. $25. Pre-registration required. A selection of written works will be available for purchase courtesy of the Peregrine. Location: 1375 S. Walker Rd, Prescott.

FRIDAY, MAY 18

9 am (at Natural History Institute) • Natural History Book Club • Natural History Book Club offers guided discussions on a diverse array of environmental and natural history literature for scholarship, inspiration, and understanding, in a welcoming atmosphere. We'll be discussing Stephen Buchmann's The Reason for Flowers on 5/18. Location: 126 N. Marina St., Prescott.

SATURDAY, MAY 19

11 am • Children's Story Time • See 5/5.

2 pm • Linda Strader: Summers of Fire • Reading, Q&A, Booksigning • Linda Strader shares the danger, romance, and personal and physical challenges in her true-life pioneering adventure as one of the first women to fight forest fires for the U.S. Government. In 1976, the job of Forest Service firefighter is male-dominated, not because women aren't interested in it, but because the Forest Service didn't allow women on fire crews until 1975.

5 pm • Kat Heatherington: The Bones of This Land • Poetry Reading, Q&A, Booksigning • Kat Heatherington will perform poetry from her debut award-winning book, The Bones of This Land, which was inspired by the Prescott landscape. Opening for Heatherington, will be Prescott poet Megan Dean, performing her own original poetry.
